02/ Wong Ching Yian - So long Ding Dong - SGP
Known as the Elvis of Singapore, Wong Ching Yian (also spelled Huang Qing Yuan) was in the same Singapore music scene as the Stylers and even claims to have discovered the band. Most of his records are straightforward lounge and pop music. He has recorded over 800 tunes. When Singapore first launched its colour TV, Mr. Huang was chosen to be the spokesman to usher in the age of colour. Huang was a pioneer of the GoGo and ChaCha scene on the island doing many shows in Malaysia as well. He recorded with multiple labels including Polar Bear Records and Panda Records, which were the two biggest going in Singapore at the time. Many of Huang's nightly lounge gigs paired him up with famous comedians and singers.

06/ Sunstrokes - Come On Let's Go - PHL

1966. The Sunstrokes came from Manila. The earliest release is a cover of the Troggs' "Wild Thing" b/w Gary Lewis & The Playboys' "Where Will the Words Come From". The Sunstrokes cut Ritchie Valens' "Come On Let's Go" backed with a cover of the Bobby Vee hit "Rubber Ball", recorded at C.A.I. Studio in the Philippines. It seems to be a relatively early D'Swan release, circa 1966. They also covered "Carry that Weight", "Hey Jude", and "Proud Mary"

07, 08/ A. Rahman Hassan & Orkes Nirwana -
Kerana Fitnah - Semoga Berjaya - MLS

1966. Over the years, the collective had recorded eight EPs featuring hits like Tak Mengapa, Hanya Untukmu, Semoga Berjaya, Perpaduan Hidup and Kerana Fitnah. The band looked at The Rolling Stones, Peacemakers, The Beatles, as well as The Shadows and Cliff Richard. "These were the acts that were really big at the time. However, we tried to create our own style and infuse more local elements into it." Orkes Nirwana remains active until today and A Rahman was last seen performing at a tsunami concert in Johor Baru. 1966 More tracks on UC141: Hala Hala 4; UC244: Hala Hala #10

09 / Alistini Badjuri & Cliffters - Oh Alek - MLS

1966. The Cliffters consisted of the Bajuree brothers -

Rickieno, Marstino, Jack and Alistini. They recorded under Ngee Fat's labels Chap Piring and Playboy. Besides Rickieno and Jasni, the band also recorded with M. Wari and June Abdullah under the same label, before moving to TNA Records. Later on

20/ Rudyn Al Haj & Impian Bateks - Terimalah laguku - MLS

Malay singer Rudyn (full name was Khairudin Haji Hashim) is most famous for with his well-known hit Naik Kreta Ku (Drive With Me, literally translated, 'Hop Into My Car') (comped on UC244 Hala Hala #10). He made this particular recording with Cosdel (backed by his own group The Bateks. After some changes within the group and because of unavoidable circumstances they joined forces with another called D'Impians (Dreamers) and formed The Impian Bateks.

Both Rudyn and Impian Bateks stood among the top Malay artistes then and their wide popularity spread across Singapore, Malaysia, Sabah, Sarawak and Brunei. He also recorded with Malay group The Falcons (CD2, track #21). Having an academic degree was rare in the 60s but Rudyn was one of those who had a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Temple University in the U.S. Besides singing Pop-yeh-yeh music with his group, Rudy also served as a Planning Officer for Sabah Film Production. In November 2007 Rudyn passed away in his hometown at Johore Bahru, Malaysia at 61

21/ Black Jacks - Mushroom Cloud - MACAO

1968. A Hong Kong Super Group formed by guitarist Peter Ng. Actually they were from Macau. During 1969 & 1970 they played in a disco called the Yellow Submarine in Tsimshatsui. Their use of Wa-Wa and Fuzz in their albums actually erupted quite some shocks to the Hong Kong music arena. Flip of single "Tomorrow Today", issued on labels Columbia, E.M.I

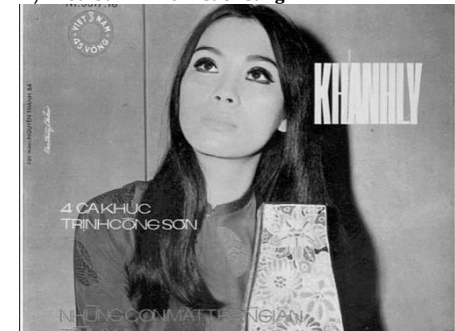

South East Asia, E.M.I. Hong Kong, E.M.I. Malaysia. ("Lesson to the Saints" on UC218, Hala Hala #9

03/ Fabulous Echoes - Woolly Bully - HK

1965. Off EP "Those Fabulous Echoes Vol. 2". The Fabulous Echoes were a mainly Pinoi group (the lead singer was from Sri Lanka), originally based in Hong Kong. They toured in Asia during the 1960s and changed their name in 1968 to "Society of Seven" playing Los Vegas (which resulted in an appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show) whereas from 1969 on they were the inhouse band at the Outrigger Waikiki Hotel in Hawaii

04/ Moonstrucks - If It's True - PHL

1965, pure Merseybeat from Toto Ealdama and The Moonstrucks. They also recorded an exciting version of "Do the Push & Pull" (comped on eYeGeNeYe, Mod Parts #7). 24 track CD "The Moonstrucks Greatest Original and Cover versions of All Time" available at themoonstrucks.bandcamp.com. The band is still active.

07/ Ernie Djohan & Bees Five - Dandy Pudjaanku - - INDO

Ernie recorded atleast 20 singles /EPs and more than 20 albums. The Bees 5 recorded with Ernie in 1967, backing Husini B in 1968. I can't find "Dandy Pudjaanku" listed in any archive.

08/ Jun Abdullah & Cliffeters - Pengembara - SGP

1966. June Abdullah is one of the most popular singers of the 60s / 70s who frequently sang Singapore & Malaysia radio songs. June Abdullah often performed with The Cliffeters, known as "The S'pore Rolling Stondes".

09/ Alistini Bajuree & Fabian Boys - Terona Taao -MLS

1966. The Cliffeters disbanded when Alistini and Wari recorded with The Fabian Boys. Alistini's songs "O Alek" and "Terona Taao" were the first Boyanese songs to be recorded in Singapore.

10/ Liu Hui Yun [劉慧雲 豪華濶少]- [undecipherable] - SGP

The 45 is distributed in Singapore but sung in Chinese. Discogs lists 5 45s and 1 album in 1967/68

11, 12/ Eddie Peregrina & Blinkers - Hang On Sloopy -Two Timer - PHL

1967, Two Timers seems to be an original whereas Sloopy is a nice version with a nice guitar solo, and great English (sorry for the skips). More tracks on UC186, Hala Hala #5, and UC187, Hala Hala #6. Eddie's real name was Edgard Peregrina, and he also played organ and lead guitar in addition to singing. He died at the age of 32 on April 30, 1977, a month after a car accident. Discography at garagehangover.com

13, 14/ A. Rahman Onn & Strangers- Bila-Kah Berjumpa - - Julaiha - MLS

17/ Aida Mustafa & Steps - Pantun Jenaka -INDO
1968. Aida is accompanied by The Steps on this EP, delivering some awesome fuzz-guitar blasts.

18/ Chang Siao Ying (张小英)- I Miss You Forever - SGP

Chang Siao Ying was a sensation from Singapore whose singing career spanned over two decades. Her first hit was "San Ke Mung", written specially for her. Other early hits were "Sin Sun Re" and "Ee Pa Xiao Yu San"). She also popularized a lot of songs before the official launch of many original versions done by other singers. It is interesting to note that she was backed by the versatile Travellers in her early days, against a backdrop where Maurice Patton & The Melodians appeared to rule the air of Chinese pops. The song is sung in Chinese /Mandarin; Chang also recorded with The Stylers.

19/ Conjunto Sempre Alerta - Mônica - MACAO
1968. Conjunto Sempre Alerta was founded in the city of Macao in 1964 by a group of skilled and versatile Catholic Boy Scouts, who received guidance and encouragement from Father João Penha Filho, then vicar of the Parish of Our Lady of the Conception of Macao. The ensemble subverted the rituals of the Catholic mass in Macao introducing guitars, tambourines and drums, which made the liturgical celebration more dynamic. In 1967, the ensemble received the title of Best Musical Ensemble of Rio Grande do Norte at the Sports Palace in Natal. Semper Alert was Macao's first group to record an album, the LP "Feito para você" in 1968 with songs written almost exclusively by the group. It was formed by Francilázio (g) Tonico (b), Chiquito (b), Simão (d), Chagas (sax), José Tavares (v) and Zé Pinheiro and Zé Olé (v).
